GOOD FARES CLOSE THE WEEK

Two Halibuters, Two Shack- ers and a Handliner Among Those Here Today.

After the lull and quiet which has prevailed along the water front for several days, quite a fleet of off-shores are here this morning, including two halibuters, two from shacking, one Georgesman and two down from Boston.

Sch. Mystery, Capt. James Mason from Western Bank, hails for 22,000 pounds fresh halibut and 5000 pounds salt cod. During the forenoon, sch. Waldo L. Stream, Capt. Frank Stream also arrived, hailing for 30,000 pounds of fresh halibut besides some fresh and salt shack. There were no halibut sales up to noon today.

A nice shacking fare is that of sch. Premier, Capt. William Morrissey, who has 50,000 pounds salt cod and 100,000 pounds fresh cod. Sch. Mary F. Curtis, Capt. Henry Curtis, one of the shackers is here with 12,000 pounds salt cod and 50,000 pounds fresh cod.

Late yesterday afternoon, sch. Titania, Capt. Patrick Vale arrived from Georges with a handline fare of 27,000 pounds salt cod and 3500 weight of halibut.

From Boston are schs. Elk with 10,000 pounds fresh fish and 5000 pounds salt cod and Maud F. Silva with 25,000 pounds fresh fish.

The gasoliners are getting a few bluebacks, steamer Alice having 100 barrels and the Herbert and Emma, 35 barrels which sold to McDonald & Cooney for bait. Yesterday afternoon steamer Unknown landed 28 barrels of bluebacks at the Fort.

CAPT. DUNSKY "RUNNING MAIL"

Brings Teazer to T Wharf This Morning With Second Good Halibut Fare.

Sch. Teazer, Capt. Peter Dunskey, is at T wharf again this morning with another of those phenomenal trips, hailing for 25,000 pounds of fresh halibut, besides a fresh shack fare of 75,000 pounds mostly cusk and hake and 5000, pounds of salt cod. Capt. Dunskey is just 19 days out, and his dandy fare will aid materially in swelling his already big season's stocks, which puts him well up among the high liners of the halibut fleet.

Outside of the Teazer, the only other arrival was sch. Maxwell from swordfishing with eight fish, which sold at eight and one-half cents a pound.

The only other sales reported was on cusk which sold at $1.80 a hundred weight, wholesale.

Boston Arrivals.

The fares and prices in detail are: Sch. Teazer, 5000 salt cod, 40,000 hake, 30,000 cusk, 5000 pollock, 25,000 halibut.

Sch. Maxwell, 8 swordfish.

Cusk, $1.80 per cwt.; swordfish $ 1-2 cents per lb.

TINKERS ARE NOW IN IPSWICH BAY

Small pods of tinkers are being sighted in Ipswich Bay and yesterday afternoon, steamer Unknown, Capt. William Marchant took eight barrels of fish, besides a few large and mediums among some bluebacks.

The traps at Manchester are getting mackerel every day, Heath's boat bringing down 20 barrels of tinkers yesterday, the largest fare taken by them this season.

Big Hauls by Netters.

Sloop Vesta with 40 barrels fresh mackerel and steamer Sam and Priscilla with 35 barrels landed at Rich's fish wharf, Provincetown, Monday.

Sloop Vesta arrived again Tuesday at Provincetown with 93 barrels of mackerel and steamer Mildred Agnes with 35 barrels.

The mackerel draggers have done poorly this week.

Netters Land at Provincetown.

Two netters both steamers, arrived at Provincetown yesterday, hailing together 60 barrels of mackerel, and when the wire was sent two other vessels had been sighted on their way into port there. Fresh bait is very scarce and several sail of groundfishermen are held up there.

Cape Shore Catches.

All along St. Margaret's Bay, Tuesday and Wednesday the fishermen have been reaping rich harvests from the mackerel schools, a second run of which has struck in close to the Nova Scotia coast. These fish are smaller than those passing northward three weeks ago but they are in good quantity nevertheless and the fishers hope to secure good hauls to compensate for those they missed during the week's stormy weather during the early part of the first mackerel run's passing.

Provincetown Fish Notes.

The Sam and Priscilla was in at about 6.30 Tuesday morning with a load of bluebacks that were sold to vessels for bait.

The crew of sch. Matchless shared $32 each on the trip landed Monday. The vessel then went to Gloucester to paint.

Portland Fishing Notes.

Capt. Charles Oleson was in again Thursday with another good sized fare of trapped mackerel and butter fish.

The steamer R. J. Killick was the only craft Thursday to arrive with bluebacks. She had 50 barrels and a few mackerel.

Haul Off Baker's Island.

C. F. Tarr, a Marblehead fisherman, made a big catch of mackerel Thursday, catching 2000 in the morning and 3000 more yesterday afternoon. The fish were taken over the road to Boston where the catch was sold, the fisherman making a neat sum as the result of his day's work. Tarr located his nets just off Baker's island.
